ANTIOCH OAK HAMMOCK ESTATE

PLANT CITY

5.5± – 11.82± ACRES

Property Overview

An exceptional opportunity to acquire two adjoining parcels totaling 11.82± acres, located at the dead end of a quiet road in west Plant City with convenient access to Tampa. At the heart of the property is a well-maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bath mobile home, offering immediate, comfortable living while plans for future development or expansion take shape.

Zoned AS-0.4, the property allows one home per 2.5 acres, creating the ability to subdivide into up to four homesites, ideal for a private family compound, multi-generational living, or estate-style development. The land is fully perimeter fenced with 6-foot chain-link fencing and includes three wells, four septic tanks, a 37.5' x 45' metal pole barn, a 32' x 20' workshop, and several additional improvements.

A scenic blend of open, fertile pasture and wooded oak hammock provides privacy, usability, and a peaceful setting with no immediate neighbors. Enjoy true seclusion while remaining conveniently close to Tampa, Plant City, and Brandon.

8606 Back Road

Offering exceptional privacy, this 5.5± acre property is located at the dead end of Back Road and set more than 700 feet off the road, with no neighboring homes in sight. Zoned AS-0.4, the property allows one home per 2.5 acres, making it possible to subdivide and create an additional homesite.

A well-maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bath mobile home totaling 1,680 square feet sits elevated among mature oak hammocks, overlooking high and dry open pasture below. The home, along with a barn and workshop, is thoughtfully tucked within the oak canopy, providing shade, seclusion, and a peaceful country setting—while remaining conveniently close to Tampa, Plant City, and Brandon. This property offers comfortable living today with future flexibility for expansion or multi-generational use.
