

1,177± Acre Cattle & Recreational Ranch
CR 833, Clewiston

Fischbach
LAND COMPANY

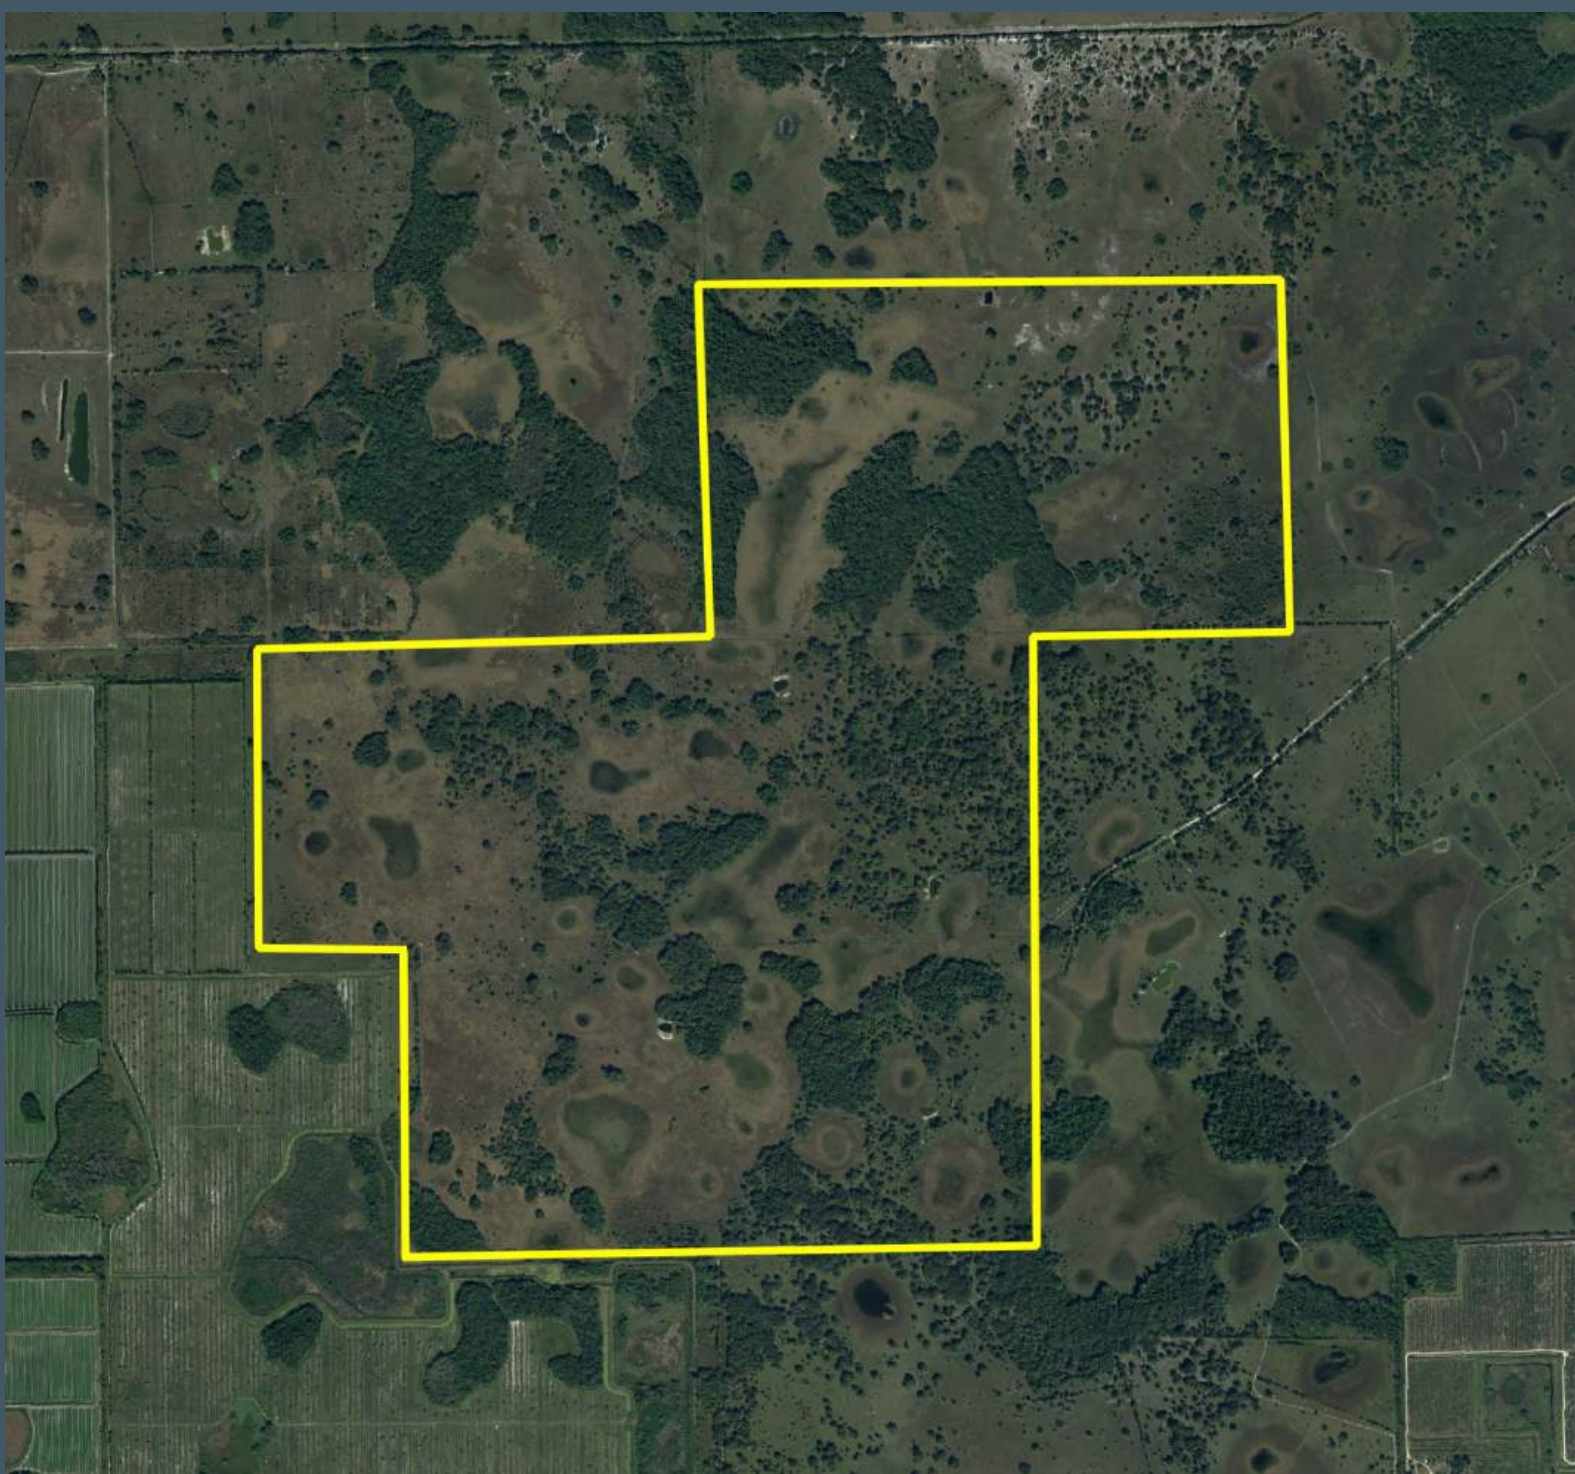

Offering 1,177± acres of classic South Florida ranch country, this exceptional Hendry County property combines the scale and functionality of a working cattle ranch with the privacy, wildlife and natural character of a premier recreational retreat.

Expansive grassed pastures are framed by mature live oak hammocks, cabbage palms, ponds and seasonal wetlands, creating a landscape that is both productive and visually striking. The ranch is established for cattle use, with livestock actively grazing the property, existing working pens and corrals, fenced pastures, cow wells, and extensive open range.

Pricing: $6,500,000

Whether operated as a working cattle ranch, enjoyed as a private hunting and sporting retreat, or held as a multi-generational family ranch and long-term land investment, this property represents a rare opportunity to own more than 1,100 contiguous acres of authentic Florida ranch land where cattle still graze beneath sprawling oaks and the character of Old Florida remains intact.

The property also offers outstanding recreational and sporting appeal. Whitetail deer, Osceola wild turkey, hogs, quail, waterfowl and other native wildlife species are established throughout the ranch. The combination of open pasture, wooded hammocks, natural water features and varied habitat provides excellent cover and forage while offering opportunities for hunting, horseback riding, wildlife viewing and year-round outdoor recreation.
